WAYFINDING MAP

PARTICIPANT ROUTE

DINING ROUTE

Notice:

Donghu and East Lake refer to the exact same geographical location. The name is composed of two parts: “Dong” corresponds to “East,” and “hu” corresponds to “Lake.”

Donghu: The Hanyu Pinyin (phonetic transliteration), primarily used for official address registration and GPS navigation. Meanwhile, East Lake (the English translation) utilized in official venue titles and international communications to help foreign visitors intuitively understand the semantic meaning of the name.
